LAW AND JUSTICE FOR LGBTIQ PEOPLE IN VICTORIA 1835-2016

An exhibition to accompany the State apology to victims of historical gay sex convictions and the 2014 expungement of these convictions.

Produced by the Australian Lesbian and Gay Archives, this exhibition charts the journey from the death penalty in the 1800s for the abominable crime of buggery to the campaigns for justice through to the repeal of discriminatory laws and the ongoing fight for human rights and equality for LGBTIQ communities.
